Issue # 13

UPRIVER NEWSLETTER

UPRIVER SUPPORTS LOCAL

Welcome spring and welcome to the April issue of the Upriver news! Plans for the Upriver Country Market are underway! In the spirit of celebrating community, The Bass River Country Fair Hall has partnered with Market organizers and we are pleased to announce the on-site barn facility will be home for the Upriver Community Market. Preparations in the building and on grounds will begin as soon as the snow clears, with opening ceremonies to take place on the morning of Saturday, July 2nd, 2011. The cost is $10 per table/space or $85 per season, for a table/space. We are reserving spaces for the market now so if you would like to reserve a spot give me a call. Tina Beers 785-4348 or email tina.beers@upriver-news.ca

Thank you to all who have submitted information to our very first 2011 Upriver Community and Business Directory; the directory will be mailed out to residents of the Parishes of Weldford and Harcourt along with the May Upriver Newsletter and hand delivered to cottagers as well as published on our Upriver Website at www.upriver-news.ca. Copies will also be available in area stores for $2.

For those of you wishing to publish events in the Upriver newsletter you may also use the website email events@upriver-news.ca. The Upriver Website, as well as I, will receive the information. The website allows you to publish more information about your event as the Newsletter space is limited. The website also allows space for cancellations and you can reschedule events as well. The website posts the monthly newsletter and much more! Check it out! www.upriver-news.ca

Don't forget the deadline for submissions to the Upriver Newsletter is the 19th of every month.

UPRIVER LITERACY

Mill Write: Notes from A Small Place
Ford's Mills, NB. Saturday, April 9, 2011 at 4:00pm
 The Greenwood Lodge, in partnership with the Writers' Federation of New Brunswick, presents Mill Write; an evening of stories and music. The dinner will take place in a cozy community center located in a quaint, rural setting in Ford's Mills, Kent County. The evening is dedicated to the memory of Al Purdy as the original event, held in April 2009, was inspired by the Save Al Purdy's House initiative. This event is presented in support of Laubach Literacy New Brunswick and begins with a "meet and greet" at four o'clock followed by a roast beef dinner at five. This year we are pleased to present Carla Gunn from Fredericton, Jason Lawson from Main River and, back by popular demand, David Weale from PEI. During the dinner, there will be live, acoustic music by Moncton musician, Nic Gould and at six; there will be readings and stories by local and visiting authors. The theme of this year's event is storytelling and we are inviting members of the audience to offer their stories. As there is limited time, we encourage anyone interested in participating to contact the organizers as soon as possible to add their name to the list. We ask that each presentation, which can be in the form of poetry or prose, to be no longer than 5 minutes. There will be a display table for authors' books and everyone with books to sell or display is encouraged to bring them. Cost of the dinner is $12/person and includes dinner, beverage and dessert. Tickets will be on sale until one week prior to the event to allow the cooks to calculate how much to prepare. Vegetarian fare is available upon request. There will also be a cash bar. To purchase dinner tickets or for more information, contact Grace at 854-5849, Nancy at 785-6652 or email greenwood_lodge@hotmail.com.
